GREENVILLE NEWS

Desmond Building in Central Avenue is Being Remodeled.

The building at 237 Central avenue, owned by J. J. Desmond, is undergoing a number of changes. At present one-half of the building is occupied by P. F. Desmond, who runs a fruit and confectionery store, and the other half has been used as a dwelling until recently. The partitions on this side of the building have all been taken out and the floor has been lowered about two feet, thus making it more on a level with the sidewalk. New metal ceilings will be put in and three show windows will be built into the walls, two of which will be on the front and one on the side. There will be a large door which will open on Central avenue. When the remodeling is finished the place will be used as a dry goods store. The work will require about a month.

Miss Mary Marlow is spending a week in New York city.

Moses Kanster of North Main street is in New London for a few days.

N. Lebrave of Hickory street has gone to Worcester, where he will reside.

Frederick Bellows of Worcester is the guest of Thomas Hoyt of Boswell avenue.

Napoleon Keroack, who has been visiting his parents on Seventh street, has returned to Milford.

Miss Catherine Reardon of North Main street has returned after a few days' stay in Providence.

Albert Castroski has resigned his position in the Shetucket company's mills to accept work in Lowell.

Miss Anne Daley of Hartford has returned after spending a few days with her sister of Boswell avenue.

Miss Ida Kraus of Bridgeport has returned to her home after spending several days with friends on Fifth street.

George Wood has returned to his home in Torrington after spending several weeks with relatives on North Main street.

Robert Turman of Stafford Springs has gone to his home after spending a week with friends on Central avenue and Washington street.

Miss Jennie Garneau has returned to her home, Pleasant View, R. I., after visiting her friends, Miss Mary Crann, at the home of Mrs. James Ward on Fourteenth street.

RENOVATIONS IN QUAKER HILL CHURCH.

Many Old Parishioners Sent Contributions for the Purpose.

A contracting firm is at work on the vestry of the Second Baptist church at Quaker Hill doing the plastering work. The electric wires have been installed and within a few weeks the new part will be ready for use. The money for the work has been raised by subscription, many people who in past years had some connection with the church having helped with funds. All the services are now held in the church.

WAS FIRST SUPERINTENDENT OF PARK CHURCH SCHOOL.

Rev. George W. Huntington to Preach at Communion Service.

At the service in Park church Sunday morning the communion address will be by Rev. George W. Huntington, pastor emeritus of the Reformed Episcopal Church of the Reconciliation, Mr. Huntington was the first superintendent of Park church Sunday school the first four years of its history and is remembered by some of the older citizens, who will be pleased to hear him again.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION CALLED.

Burdick Sets 5 Mile Mark at 5 Minutes, 42½ Seconds on Last Day of Fair—Balloon Ascension Again a Feature—Billy Burke Tots 2.16¼—More Premiums Awarded.

The balloon ascension, the third markedly successful one of the fair, officially closed the 15th annual of the New London County Agricultural society on Thursday afternoon about 5 o'clock. A little dash of rain arrived soon afterwards, sending the people scurrying towards the cars, and nothing was left of the fair but the job of cleaning up the grounds of the fair scattered about by the crowds or left by the exhibitors after they packed up their goods and shipped them back to the city late of the last afternoon.
